

FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. My family truly enjoys and values the peace we have acquired since it's enactment.